What makes us 'a breed apart'???

Our 100% All Natural Akaushi Kobe Beef!!!

Akaushi is a breed of Japanese cattle that has only been available in Japan for over a century. Only one breeding herd has ever left Japan—this herd was brought to the U.S. in 1994 and launched the HeartBrand Beef line.

BurgerMonger

HeartBrand Beef is the sole provider for all BurgerMonger Burgers and Hot Dogs!

Why use Akaushi Beef?

-Akaushi cattle consistently produce meat that rates several levels above USDA prime

-It contains a higher concentration of monounsaturated fat relative to saturated fat, which the American Heart Association notes can lead to lower cholesterol, the prevention of coronary heart disease, and weight loss.

-It is a significant source of oleic acid, the compound in olive oil that the USDA touts as good for the heart

-Its taste is rich, buttery and UNBEATABLE

It will only take one bite to make
